Still Time to Register and WALL Begins a New Learning Program

Dear Members,

February ushers in more great classes for WALL members. There is still time to register for some of the classes that have vacancies. The following classes have seats waiting to be filled: Poetry, The Flesh Made Word, an Introduction to Poetry, two spaces available; Intermediate Digital Story Telling, with room for four more; Sign Language still has a seat available and Tai Chi can take ten more for this semester.

If you are interested in any of the classes, please register as soon as possible and if you have any questions or require additional information concerning these classes, please contact Vince Coughlin at vince.coughlin@cox.net, or Hannah Doan at hdoan@wesleyancollege.edu, or phone Hannah at 478-757-5233.

And finally we hope you will attend the first Lunch and Learn program in February. This will be the first in a series of programs that we will sponsor this year. The first event is this Wednesday, February 4th. A flyer with details is on page 3 of this newsletter. If you have suggestions about speakers for Lunch and Learn, please send them to Betty Taylor at taylorbetty@prodigy.net or Anita Greenwald at anita.greenwald@gmail.com. And remember these programs are open to anyone in the community and we hope they will help us spread the word about the Academy for Lifelong Learning.

Enjoy the Winter at WALL
